

VACCINATE NEW YORK

Good Evening,

You are invited to join the New York State Department of Health and senior members of the Governor's vaccination task force tomorrow, Monday, January 11th, for an informational webinar on updates to the State's vaccination plan.

The event will be live streaming from 7:00 to 8:30 PM and will be accessible online from a computer browser or mobile device. The viewing link will be provided in a follow up email tomorrow.

Prior to the webinar, questions can be submitted in advance by emailing them to vaccinate.ny@exec.ny.gov.

We hope you will join us for this informational session.

Best Regards,

NYS Department of Health
